Lemak Sports Medicine & Orthopedics Expands
Five Highly Specialized Physicians Added

Birmingham, AL (November 30, 2010) — Lemak Sports Medicine & Orthopedics recently welcomed five new physicians to locations across the Greater Birmingham area. Among the new additions are physicians with specialties in sports medicine, primary care, joint and shoulder and spine. The new additions to Lemak Sports Medicine will total nine orthopedic physicians.

“We are extremely proud and excited to welcome talented physicians to our practice,” said Matthew Lemak, Chief Executive Officer of Lemak Sports Medicine. “The addition of these physicians allows for expansion of Lemak Sports Medicine from Trinity and Alabaster to Gardendale and Childersburg. Future plans for expansion include Trussville and possibly Hoover.”

Dr. Jose Echenique and Dr. Edward Bromberg are practicing Sports Medicine and General Orthopedics at Lemak Sports Medicine in Gardendale.

Dr. Echenique attended the University of Puerto Rico for Pre-Med and continued his education at Dartmouth Medical School. Dr. Echenique completed his Residency in Orthopedic Surgery at George Washington University. Dr. Echenique is a fellow of the American Sports Medicine Institute.

Dr. Bromberg attended Emory University for Pre-Med and continued his education at the Medical College of Georgia. Dr. Bromberg completed his Residency in Orthopedic Surgery at the University of Alabama at Birmingham. Dr. Bromberg is certified by the American Board of Orthopaedic Surgery and is a fellow of the American Academy of Orthopedic Surgery. Prior to joining Lemak Sports Medicine & Orthopedics, Dr. Bromberg operated his own medical practice in Birmingham and Gardendale and brings over 33 years of orthopedic experience to our practice.

Dr. William Burkhalter currently practices Primary Care and Sports Medicine at Lemak Sports Medicine Trinity location; once the expansion is complete he will be relocating to Trussville.

More

Dr. Burkhalter attended Furman University for Pre-Med and continued his education at the Medical University of South Carolina College of Medicine. Dr. Burkhalter completed his Residency in Family Medicine at the University of South Alabama and is a fellow of the University of South Alabama Department of Family Medicine and Baldwin Bone and Joint, P.C. Dr. Burkhalter was certified by the American Board of Family Medicine.

Dr. Stan Faulkner is practicing at Lemak Sports Medicine Trinity location as our spine orthopedic surgeon.
